Mr. Harry L. Harrington,,

Mattapan, Mass.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of December 19th has just been received..
I fear your former letter may have gone astray as I have no recollection of having received a letter from you.

I am sending you, under separate cover, a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws of this Society, also the report of its last annual meeting..

I note that you state you are interested in insignia
and badges..

This Society has a very large collection of the insignia of American, military and hereditary societies, and war medals, also a large collection of foreign decorations and war medals.

We also have a large library relating to all branches of numismatics, and including the above subjects..

Should you be in New York at any time, it would give me great pleasure to show you these collections.. The Society's collections, like its library, embrace all branches of numismatics.

Should you desire any further information, kindly advise me.

Very truly yours,.

Dear Sir:

Yours of Dec 21. duly recd.
Also received copy of Constitution & By-Laws and report & for which please accept my thanks.

What I am trying at present to get is an illustrated catalogue in correct colors of military decorations & insignias of patriotic societies in this & foreign countries.
Have you such a catalogue for distribution or do you know where one can be procured?

January 7th, 1915.

Mr. Harry L. Harrington,
1272 Blue Hill Avenue,
Mattapan, Mass.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of January 2nd has been duly received. I do not know of any catalogue of military decorations and insignia of patriotic societies. The Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company, of Philadelphia, illustrate a few of these that they make in a catalogue of Military and Naval Insignia and Novelties which they publish, but the illustrations are not colored. You might get illustrations of a few from J. E. Caldwell & Company, 982 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. Tiffany & Company, of New York, make quite a number, but I do not believe they have ever published any catalogue of them.

As regards foreign decorations, there are many books describing them that are published in France, Germany and other countries. Whether there would be any particular difficulty in procuring them now or not, I do not know. Perhaps the most profusely illustrated book is RITTER-UND VERDIENST-ORDEN, EHREN-ZEICHEN UND MEDAILLEN by C. I. Troft published in Leipsic in 1910. This is quite a large book, and I do not know its cost as the copy the Society has was presented.

If there is any further information that I can give you, I will be glad to do so.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
